

Coolest Red Crystal Chandelier; Ugolino by Lolli Memmoli

Posted on March 28, 2012 by admin

You have the TV, you have the movies... Give your family the surround sound they Lolli Memmoli has created the coolest red crystal chandelier named Ugolino. This is a coolest chandelier with the red crystals hang from a circular frame and seem to be woven together like fabric. Light bounces and seeps through this amazing structure, creating an atmosphere filled with splendor and glamorous. Lolli Memmoli are pretty famous for their striking lighting designs. Their chandeliers are probably better defined as architectural lighting projects. Every product is meticulously made by hand, so each item is a distinct representation of the original design.
